

Documents for Admission:

- Application form from the University of Warsaw IRK admission system (open between 25 June and 23 July 2017)
- M.A. diploma
- Resume/cv
- 3 photos
- Transcript of records
- Proof of English proficiency
- Proof of oriental language proficiency (based on the field of study, B2 level)
- Research project (the size of 2 pages, ca. 4000 characters) which:
 - contains the formulation of a research problem and tentative hypotheses,
 - contains brief theoretical introduction with references to the literature of the subject,
 - determines the field of study (literary studies/linguistics)
- Academic activity
- Opinion of the professor recommending a candidate for a doctoral program (recommendation letters written by faculty members and/or professional colleagues who are in a position to judge your potential for success in the doctoral program, your aptitude for research, and your capacity to make a contribution to your chosen profession. If you were recently a student, faculty members are appropriate. Personal friends and family members are not appropriate recommenders).
- Supervisor's acceptance letter